COCKTAILS

THE RHUBARB PATCH

Our signature cocktail combines our homemade rhubarb syrup with a local gin shaken over ice with Martini Rubino vermouth, lemon juice and aquafaba.

Sir Alexander Dick took a particular interest in horticultural propagation in the 1700s and was accorded a gold medal from the Royal Society for introducing rhubarb to Scotland. The rhubarb patch remains today and is used to make our rhubarb syrup.

TEAS

SCOTTISH BREAKFAST

A strong malty breakfast tea blended in Edinburgh by our local Edinburgh tea merchants in Rosevear Tea. Malty large leaved tea from India and China, with a hint of sweet orchid flowers and softly smoking cinders, combine to give a reassuringly strong brew.

QUEENS BREAKFAST

This blend of Ceylon and Darjeeling black teas is made especially in honour of Queen Elizabeth II. It combines the floral aromas of Darjeeling with the richness and strength of Ceylon.

EARL GREY BLUE FLOWER

A full-bodied black tea with aromatic bergamot and blue cornflower petals. A superb Earl Grey.

FIRST FLUSH DARJEELING

Tea from Darjeeling is known as the 'Champagne of teas' and the most sought-after Darjeeling teas are plucked in the first harvest (known as the first flush). Aromatic with vegetal, mossy and citrus notes.

LAPSANG SOUCHONG

The scent of a wood-burning fire and the taste reminiscent of a smoky single-malt whisky. This is an earthy, smoky, aromatic and truly delicious tea. 'Lapsang Souchong' was a favourite tea of Sir Winston Churchill and is one of the most recognisable of all Chinese teas.

JASMINE BLOSSOM

This organic Jasmine Blossom green tea has been naturally scented with jasmine by layering fresh jasmine flowers onto the tea and then removing them four times.

ROSE PETAL

The fragrance of roses in a cup. Freshly dried rose petals blended with an aromatic Chinese congou black tea and essence of Rose.

BLACK FIG SENCHA

A combination of fig and whole forest fruits. The honey sweetness of fig is twinned with the succulence of whole forest fruits. A beautiful tea with leaves that can be reinfused for a second brew.

GREEN DRAGON

A full flavoured green tea from Yunnan, the birthplace of tea in China with a fresh, clear and relatively strong infusion when infused for several minutes, but it is also a tea that can be enjoyed lightly infused for a delicious subtle grassy note.

EVENING CHAI

A beautiful warming and spicy herbal blend on a base of cocoa and carob pieces, with the delightful addition of exotic spices that include cinnamon, cardamom, ginger, liquorice and cloves, with an added sweet vanilla note.

RHUBARB ROOIBOS

A blend of rooibos and rhubarb pieces. It has the distinct, authentic taste of rhubarb with a creamy vanilla undertone from the rooibos base. A perfect caffeine-free infusion to savour in Prestonfield House where Rhubarb was first introduced to Scotland.

WHOLE LEAF PEPPERMINT

Exceedingly aromatic whole peppermint leaves. The most intense peppermint tea we have ever tried.

CAMOMILE FLOWERS

Very aromatic with notes of apple and a floral sweetness. Take a moment to relax with this classic herbal tea. Camomile flowers are reputed to reduce insomnia and stress while boosting the body's immune system.

SCOTTISH FUDGE

Chinese black tea blended with caramel pieces and flowers. Caramel, butter, and a touch of brown sugar unfold smoothly across the palate.

CRIMSON TWILIGHT

A refreshing blend of organic red rooibos, citrus peels & hibiscus that combines the aromatic sweetness of blood red oranges with the tart freshness of hibiscus.

MAPLE ORCHARD

Rich black tea with apple pieces and the indulgent flavours of maple syrup and walnut. A real treat.
